Long Haul Specialty Transport, Inc.
Terms and Conditions of Service

These terms and conditions apply to the proposal for transportation and hauling services being provided by Long Haul Specialty Transport, Inc. ("Company") to _____ ("Customer").

1. Customer and Company agree that the condition of the vehicle(s) will be documented at time of receipt by Company. Customer will be requested to inspect and confirm the condition of the vehicle(s) at time of delivery to destination. Any claims of damage to the vehicles during transport should be reported to Company at the time of inspection at the destination.
2. The attached invoice and Company's proposal letter are included as part of these terms and conditions. Customer agrees to make payment in accordance with the invoice.
3. Company is not responsible for delays due to severe weather, traffic conditions, road detours and closures, governmental orders or regulations, acts of God, shortages of fuel or supplies, or other conditions beyond Company's control that make timely performance by Company impracticable.
4. Company maintains liability insurance in the amount of $1,000,000 per occurrence/$2,000,000 aggregate and cargo insurance of $100,000. Company's liability to Customer for any claims pertaining to Company's services is limited to Company's insurance coverage and/or refund of any amounts paid by Customer. To the extent permitted under applicable law, Company shall have no liability for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages or any lost revenues of Customer.
5. Company will comply with all federal and state laws and regulations pertaining to Company's hauling services.
6. Company's proposal and these terms and conditions are governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania without regard to its conflict of laws provisions. The state and federal courts located in Bucks County, Pennsylvania shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue of any disputes between Company and Customer.
